

DYING TO MEET YOU: A TOUR OF HOPE

Preventing Euthanasia & Encouraging Hope

FEBRUARY 26 – MARCH 8, 2026

Find the full schedule here:

www.rcdvictoria.org/events/dying-to-meet-you

Discover the Dying to Meet You Project and be part of the conversation:

- Engaging life's big questions of, suffering death, meaning, and hope
- Promoting confident and courageous witness
- Proposing a positive alternative vision for living and dying well

See full event schedule here:
rcdvictoria.org/events/dying-to-meet-you

Amanda Achtman is the founder of the Dying to Meet You Project.

She is also the Ethics Director for Canadian Physicians for Life and an instructor of Catholic Bioethics for St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry. She holds graduate degrees from the John Paul II Catholic University in Lublin, Poland and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome.

Learn more about about Dying to Meet You here:
dyingtomeetyou.com

